

Recent Forest Industry Closures in Colorado

Year	Mill	Size
1981	Hudspeth, Pagosa Springs	C
	Hudspeth, Durango	C
1986	Black Mountain Spruce, Craig	A
1987	LP, Kremmling	C
1990	McKeever Sawmill, Norwood	A
1992	LP OSB*, Kremmling	C
1993	Wolf Creek Industries, Pagosa Springs	A
1994	LP, Walden	C
	Ponderosa Timber, Cortez	B
1998	Satterwhite Log Homes, Dotsero	A
	Jackson Lumber, South Fork	A
2000	Sagebrush Lumber, Montrose	A
	Best Log Homes, Cortez	A
2001	U.S. Forest Industries, South Fork	C
	LP OSB*, Olathe	C
2004	Jones Lumber, Delta	A

*OSB = Oriented Strand Board

Size

A = 15 to 50 employees, including logging contractors

B = 50 to 150 employees, including logging contractors

C = 150 + employees, including logging contractors

Note: The LP mill in Saratoga, WY, which obtained a portion of its timber from Colorado, closed in early 2003. The mill provided employment for approximately 250 employees and logging contractors.