OK, I've had enough. First we get sued even because the additional revenue is for education. Now it's not even going to education, and we can't provide any of the remedies asked for. I'm ready to call for a meeting and/or vote to stipulate that we agree with the plaintiffs. Pam, do you want to tell Dwight your board is revolting over this, so he can tell the governor he's got a serious problem, or do you want me to tell him?

Hmmmm are we shocked?

Not only is what they did unconstitutional, but they misled the public about what the funding will be used for. 3.8 billion dollars of taxpayer $ squandered

Democrat budget chief says tax hike--once pledged to schools--will fund other programs, too

The chairman of the powerful Joint Budget Committee has acknowledged on the record that a sweeping statewide property-tax hike pushed through last year by his fellow Democrats will subsidize new social programs--not just schools, as originally promised...Full Story:
