STEVE WARD ON ARMSTRONG'S DAD'S LETTER TO VOTERS

(LITTLETON) July 17 –Wil Armstrong's campaign released a letter from his dad endorsing his son for the 6th Congressional District.

Bill said of his son, "...he has already won the "Battle of the T-shirts," referring to the number worn at political events.

Bill/Wil, at a time when hundreds of thousands of Americans are at war, fighting in places you've never volunteered to go, it's offensive to boast about winning a fight in terms of parade costumes.

My T-shirt is olive drab.
